Published by the Seniors of Southeastern High School
Detroit, Michigan

Dedication

This 1945 Aryan, as you know by now, is dedicated to Southeastern's very excellent faculty member and friend, Mr. Robert Brown.

The many good reasons why Mr. Brown was selected for this honor are of course known to practically every one in this school. No need here to explain.

It is a matter of custom, however, to scatter a bit of gossip about these famous people to whom the Aryan is dedicated, and we can see no reason why Mr. Brown should be an exception.

First off, then, Mr. Brown claims Boise, Idaho, as his native town. He couldn't have stayed there too long, though, because he was already in Detroit when he went to high school, Northern being his alma mater.

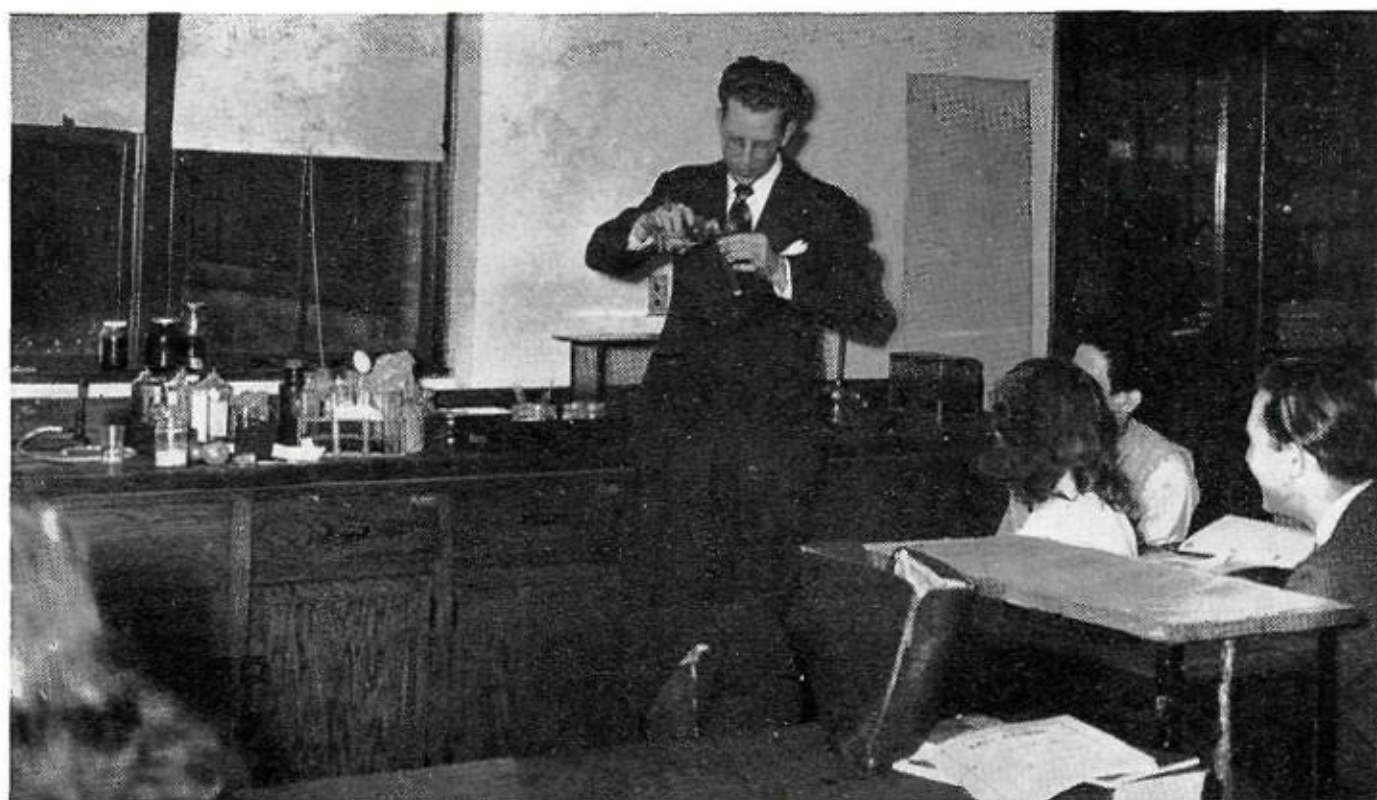

Albion College gave Bob his under-graduate work; he received his Master's degree in science from U. of M. At Michigan he minored in art, and in his spare time painted a beautiful mural which still adorns a wall in the Vulcan Room of the Michigan Union Tower.

From college Mr. Brown started right in teaching, and soon found his way to Southeastern.

Mr. Brown is married and has a sturdy little son named Douglas, of whom papa is unspeakably proud.

We on the Aryan Staff like teachers who act as if they thoroughly like and believe in their work at Southeastern. Some teachers do scads of work more than they actually have to, including the tedious and unpleasant chores, and they do it with enthusiasm. Mr. Brown is one of these teachers.

In our opinion, the entire history of Southeastern could produce few teachers as well liked, as competent, or as highly respected as Mr. Bob Brown. May he flourish long!

... Mr. Brown usually shows them how.

JANUARY CLASS SONG

Chorus

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The score consists of six systems of staves. The first system includes a treble and bass staff for each voice part. The second system continues the melody. The third system is labeled 'Chorus' and features a change in time signature to 2/4. The fourth system continues the chorus melody. The fifth system continues the chorus. The sixth system concludes the piece with a final chord. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and bar lines.

I

*To you, Southeastern,
Home of our happy high school days,
We leave your hollowed portals
And go on our ways.*

II

*We face the future,
Rememb'ring joyous days gone by;
They'll be our inspiration
From Southeastern High.*

Chorus

*Farewell to thee, our school of fame,
We'll remember you always;
And whene'er we hear your name,
Southeastern, you we'll praise.*

Maybees

What does November 1944 mean to you???? Another four years lease on the White House by the F.D.R.'s??? Well, to the Maybees it meant the combination of Charouhis, Tayler, Keepers and Birach for the respective offices of the Maybee Class. We doubt whether anyone will forget the campaign songs and shenanigans that were carried on by enthusiastic vote getters.

The Maybee Election was proclaimed by all as the wildest, rip-roaringest contest SE ever witnessed.

We offer our consolation to Hincks, DeDona, Steckley and Karcis, the defeated; to the campaign managers, loads of appreciation for the humorous speeches that kept everyone in stitches.

Yes, the Maybees do remember November 1944, and will for years to come, thanks to the fine sponsorship of Mr. Stuart Cammett, faculty adviser.

June Class Song

Verse

The time has come to pass
When we must part at last.
And now resolve that
We must our goals attain,
And make sure that forevermore
Peace on earth will reign.
Our hearts shall blend in chorus
To sing of thee.

Chorus One

Through three long years of study,
We've found our busy ways.
We love thy halls where hope is bright,
And lights of knowledge gleam.
Our highschool life is passing,
Oh! gliding swiftly by,
So let us pledge our love for Southeastern High.

Chorus Two

We pay a loving tribute
To your exalted name.
Oh! radiant are the hours we've spent
And dear each high school friend.
Our bond can ne'er be broken
Though we must leave you now.
Your seniors all salute thee!
Southeastern High.

*The very best of luck!
always,
Nally Riley.*

JUNE MAYBEES

Smiling candidates, nervous speakers, and an audience of 250 set the scene for the first function of the Maybee class of June '45.

Contestants for the respective offices were Archie Farquahar, Dick Schultz; Wilma Wilson, Elaine Hansen; Jean Anderson, Dorothy Leck; and Dick Dean and Herb Damerau. The first of each pair named were victorious. The speakers were tops both in spirit and in their deliberations.

Many songs and gags which were displayed with a sense of friendliness and good will were introduced in the Houses to attract votes, much to the delight of the Maybee voters. Some of the catchy slogans were: Don't be Starchy, Vote for Archie; By heck vote for Leck; Get on the beam, Vote for Jean; and Don't be a hick, Vote for Dick.

Mr. Cammett
Class Sponsor

The class was small, but its officers and the administration planned big things, as was learned when the dance and the Senior-Maybee Reception were held.

Sports

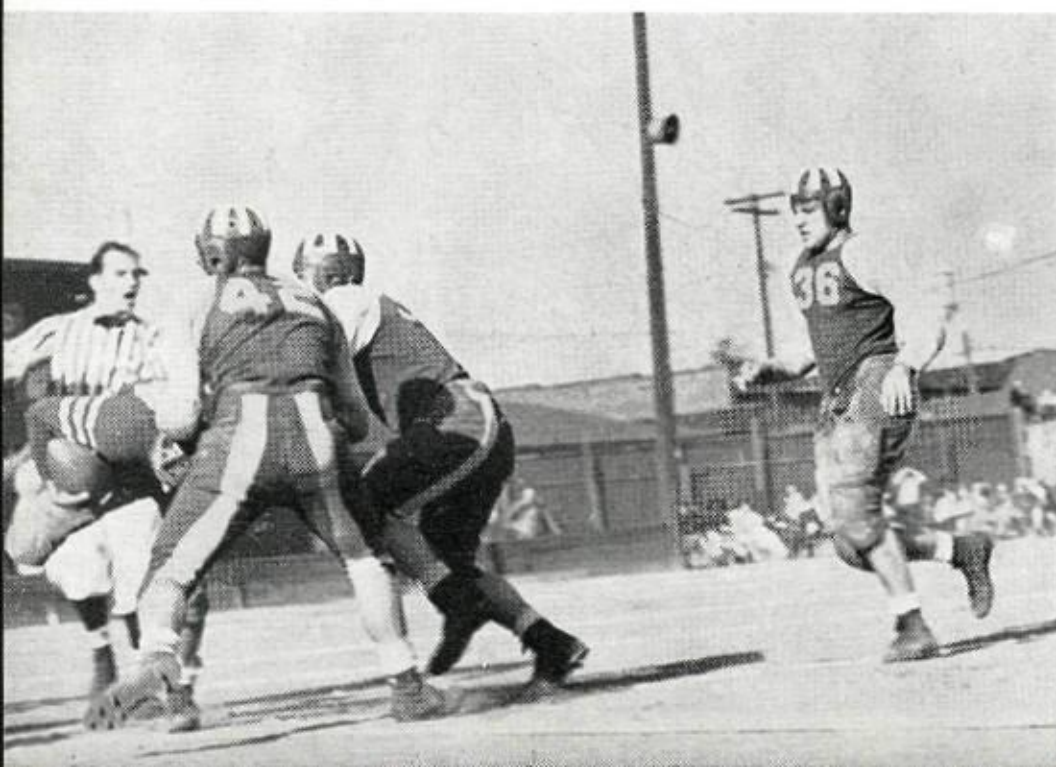

Varsity Football

The football season for 1944 was completed with one victory and five defeats for Coach Schooff's boys. Because our team was defeated by only one or two touchdowns in most of their games, our showing was much better than the scoreboard indicated.

The returning lettermen were Captain Mike Kaysserian, Al Bennedetti, Val Thurm, Pete Gifton, Jim Tisler and John Cammett.

Highlights of the season were Adam's running, Martin's passing, Kaysserian's blocking and Tisler's tackling.

After a bad start, the team, filled with determination, showed great improvement in the later games.

The cream of the crop in a city of nearly 2,000,000. That's the story of Southeastern's City Championship basketball team. And say, was this old school ever proud!

Naturally, the climax of the season was just perfect, what with beating Mackenzie at Olympia while over 15,000 fans all but had heart-failure. There were many other big things in this basketball season that belong in the record.

This championship was won by a green team that had to pick up its experience as it played. Yet this team bested every other high school in the Metropolitan League, and with it Perry Deakin was credited with doing the best coaching job of the year. This honor was official.

During the season, the team was tied twice but never officially beaten. A "loss" to Miller was changed to a forfeit in our favor.

The whole Play-Off Series was worth its weight in gas-stamps to see. Quarter-finals and semi-finals were played to packed, screaming houses in the beautiful Denby gym.

First our lads took Pershing apart, piece by piece, then they proceeded to beat the pants off Hamtramck. Was that sweet!

But the Big game at Olympia was the dream pay-off, SE crashing home ahead of Mackenzie by one point, 29-28.

It was something no one who saw it will ever forget: the tremendous crowd, four school bands, Southeastern's biggest - and - snappiest - in - the - city Cheerleaders, the Mayor, hot-dogs 'n pop, and the CHAMPIONSHIP! Yup, some fun!

The SE Varsity Swimming team for 1944 proved that they were contenders for honors. Placing 2nd on the East Side and 6th in the city meets is no little accomplishment.

Bob Heriter, Ken Regal and Ralph Blohm, All-City men, combined with co-captains Schultz and Farwell, kept the team in there fighting all of the time.

Coach Froehlich's untiring efforts produced thirteen letter winners. Because most of these boys are returning next year our hopes for another good record are high.

T r a c k

The Dierkes-coached hill-'n-dalers had an in-and-out season to look back upon. Don Foukes, captain and all-city miler, led his team mates and opponents to the finish line in most of the meets.

An array of newcomers, plucky but inexperienced, composed the team. Among these lads were Omer De Schepper, Archie Farquhar, Don Vereecke, Ted Camella, Ken Angel, Andy Smirnes and Earl Tomlinson. Although the season was none too successful, many new prospects were scouted by Coach Dierkes. With all these boys returning, S. E. can look to a brighter future on the cinder paths.

The Banner for House Indoor Track stays on the walls of 203, as the Cammett-men emerged victorious from one of the most exciting House Track meets in recent years.

Bryant Gorton contributed heavily to the Argonaut's cause by taking 3 firsts; 30-yard dash, 30-yard low hurdles, 220 dash. Another Argonaut, Tom Fraser, won the 440.

House 202 placed first and second in the half mile with Wally Kraft finishing 5 seconds ahead of McPherson. Their relay team consisting of Mays, Hampton, Kaiser, and High, captured first place in the relays.

Leading a large field of entrants, Bill Wilson took home the mile honors for 222.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

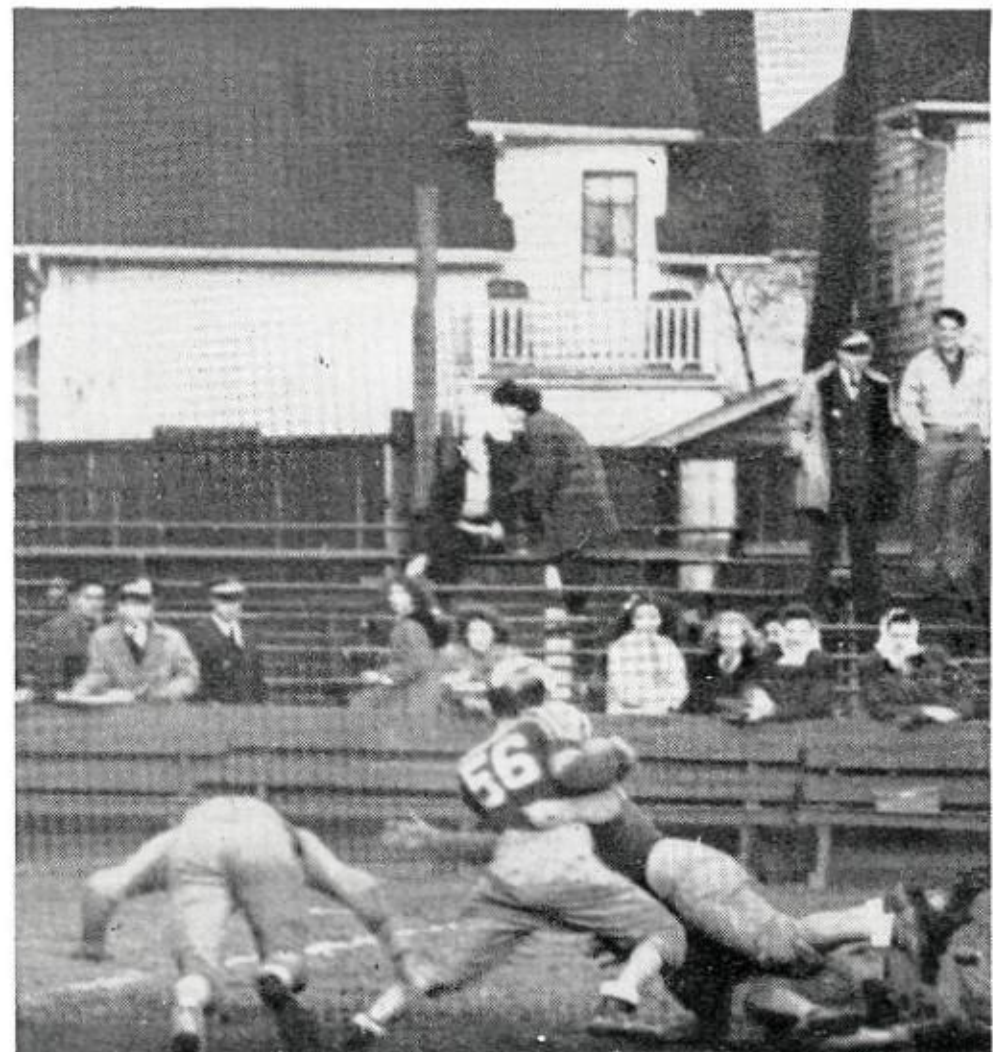

A hard working Reserve squad came through the 1944 football season with three wins, one tie, and one defeat.

Fred Edwards handled the job of captain like a regular pigskin veteran. Harris, Tanoury and Bayagich displayed real ability in carrying the ball. Other assets to the team were Crawford with his timely conversions, Xanthoulous with his bullet passes, and Catalino with his swell defensive plays.

The climax of the season came with the challenge to play the mighty varsity at Mack Park. The boys took up the challenge and for three long quarters humbled the not-so-super supermen. In the closing minutes the superior strength of the "Big Boys" began to tell, and they come out on top 20 to 0, feeling quite lucky about the whole thing.

Although the team was not large, it was packed with all-around efficiency.

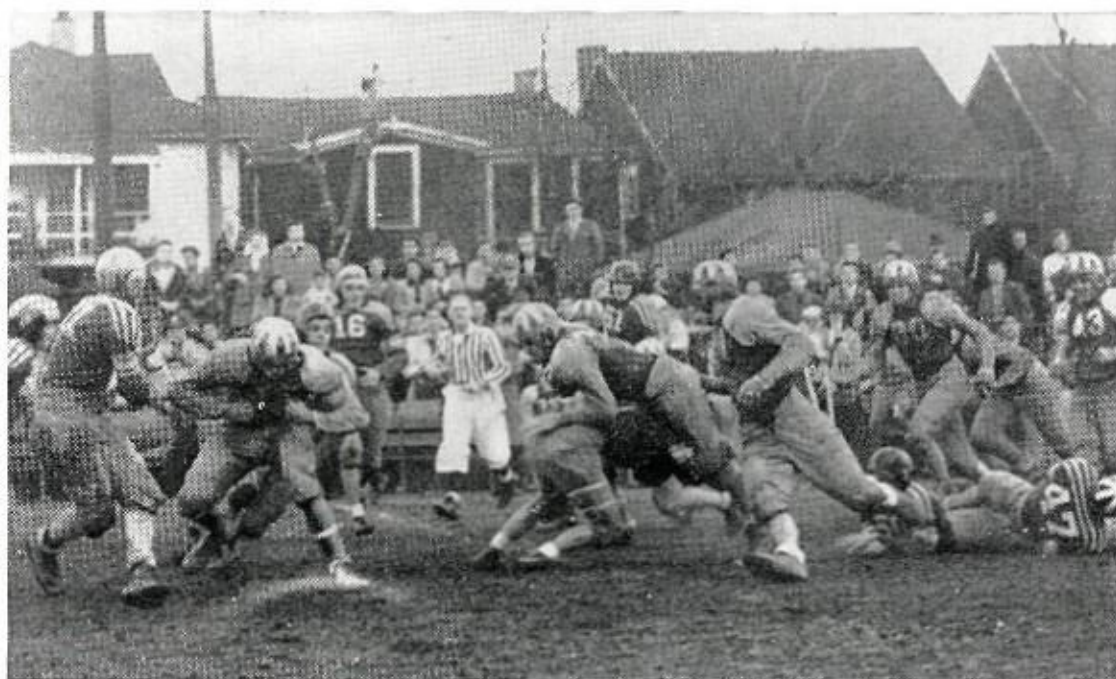

Watch these boys display their talents on the Varsity next year.

HOUSE FOOTBALL

Unblemished! That describes the House of Roosevelt's football record for this year. Winning every game, 222 allowed no one to cross their goal. Their lowest margin was 15-0, over 203.

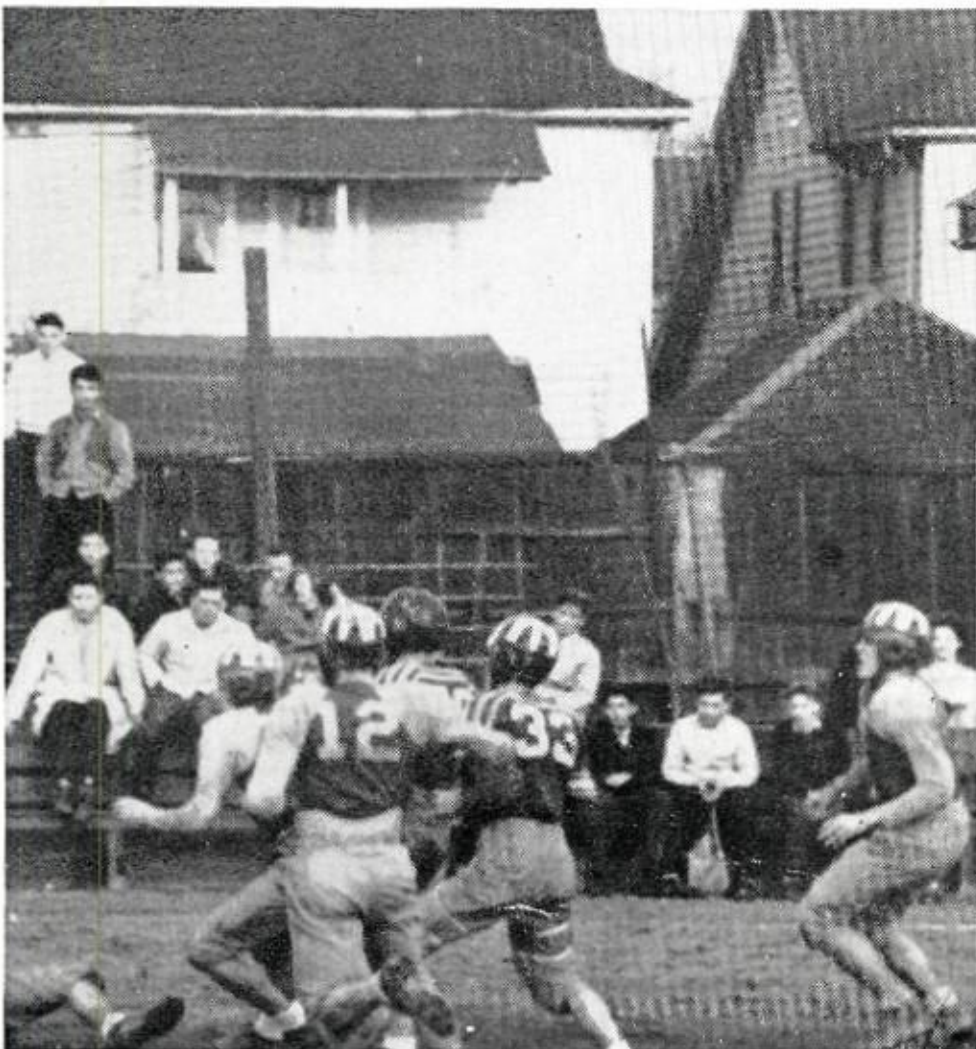

George Van Haezebrouck's savage tackles and accurate passes, teamed with "Bubs" Weiler's tremendous body blocks and touchdown runs spurred the "Bulldogs" to victory.

A vote of thanks is extended to Coach Dierkes for a swell job as "official referee."

Participation in house sports is to be encouraged because it prepares boys for Reserve and Varsity teams.

The All-House Football team was chuck full of talented players, who are to be congratulated on one swell showing.

Here is a flash of the kind of action that is typical of what happened throughout the exciting Varsity-Reserve game that climaxed the 1944 football season. It's a cinch that this game will remain a fixture in Southeastern's sports affairs.

GIRLS

Basketball

The girl cagers ended their season with a total of two victories and two losses. Eastern and Cass proved easy to handle and were defeated by scores of 25-16 and 17-7 respectively. Denby again proved to be a fateful opponent and the game ended 26-17 in Denby's favor. Northeastern also showed their superior passing and blocking and the scoreboard read 21-17.

Hockey

Even under the able co-captainship of Alice Kretschmer and Lois Newborn, the girls' field hockey team was unable to score a winning point against the strong opposition put up by Denby, Liggett, Hamtramck, and Northeastern. The first two tilts ended in a toss up, but in the last two, the Southeasternites were defeated by scores of 2-0 and 1-0 respectively.

Irene Nelson, Josephine Gentry, Shirlee Carlson, Marie Ferreri, and Dorothy Dritler have left vacancies which Miss Hirt feels sure will be filled by some up and coming tenth and eleventh graders.

ARYAN

If you are the owner of this book you paid a dollar twenty-five for it. That probably didn't hurt you very much, the way things are these days.

But what did it mean to the dozen or so of your class-mates pictured here to make this possible? . . . Well, let's see.

They were appointed to the Staff last September. Immediately there followed a series of trips to Photoengraver's studios to learn all about the planning and styling of modern year-books, and to see just how copper and zinc engravings are made.

Then came trips to printers and to binders, followed by conferences with book-cover merchants. After these preliminaries came the meetings actually to plan the 1945 Aryan. Then the real job started.

Hundreds of pictures had to be planned and taken, pages laid out, copy written. 800 Senior Histories had to be collected, edited, typed and proofed, then sent to the printer's and proofed again, along with all other copy.

This meant plain dreary work daily, usually till six o'clock and after. Then the streets had to be tramped to sell advertising, retramped to get the ad copy, and again tramped to collect for the ads, for most of them.

Of course there was also the work on features, clubs, activities, and sports to be done. All this the Staff contributed. Only printer's, engraver's, photographer's and cover firm's bill had to be paid. Thus this book for $1.25. Simple, eh?

JUNGALEER

Take a good, long, steady look at the pictures on this page, and while you are doing it try to realize that you are looking at a miracle.

Actually, you are looking at what comes within a cat's whisker of being a miracle. You see, all these people worked on the Jungaleer anywhere from one to four or more semesters, come next Wednesday, and not one has as yet gone beserk; at least not to the Advisor's knowledge.

That, friends, is something.

The Jungaleer, like the usual high school paper, naturally has just a bunch of kids as reporters, as editors, as business managers, and as advertising salesmen.

What they write is ogled by twenty-odd English teachers, as well as 60 or 70 others, who jolly well better not find any errors in English, historical data, scientific references, or any whuzzis-'n-howzat. Of course they do; and that means trouble.

These student journalists must not fail to give due and just space to every club, activity, interest, department, House, tribe and termite within earshot.

Then, in so doing, woe be if there is a mistake in name-spelling, ages given, honors won, Gregg-stuff achieved, stamps bought, Christmas-baskets filled, or club-initiations described.

Then come the so-called niceties. Oh, the finger pointing! You gotta-rub "gotta," you have to watch your language when writing about lady-teachers, old teachers . . . about teachers. Then there are the universal Board-of-Ed taboos; they're reasonable, and they are generous, but they are taboos, and a steady nervous strain keeping them in mind.

Again, for the newspaper, there is the matter of paying your bills. That means . . . selling advertising again. AND collecting, to say nothing of keeping the space-buyers happy.

Thus the complete cycle as mentioned occurs every two or three weeks, and it goes on and on, while you, dear casual glancer-at-the Jungaleer, yawn, growl a bit because your name is never mentioned in Party-Line, and forget all about it.

And that is where the miracle comes in. Hope you don't mind the mentioning of it.

Cordially,

the Faculty boss.

Meet The Drapers

It might well be called a story-book coincidence that the fates chose this year, in which Southeastern won the City Championship in basketball, to return Mr. Draper to Southeastern.

It may be pretty well-known by now, yet it bears repeating, that it was in connection with basketball that Mr. Draper first endeared himself to all good friends of this school.

Our assistant principal was basketball coach at SE from 1920 to 1926. One of his many accomplishments during that interval was to bring this school the state basketball championship . . . Yes, this is a reasonable time for the prodigal's return.

Aside from his fame as a coach, however, what else do we know about this busy person, who is Commandant Thompson's executive officer?

In the first place, Mr. Draper is a solid (very solid) family man. You may as well stop reading right now and take a look at his family picture; it won't hurt you. Go on! Look.

Well, that's that. Interesting picture, eh?

By his own admission, Boss Draper is a fellow who likes an occasional picnic, lends a hand now and then in the kitchen, goes to a movie once in a while, drives a chevvy, reads the News and Free Press and all available magazines really worth reading, and is still intensely interested in all sports.

Like several million others, he just loves a tender steak; his favorite dessert is apple pie with ice cream. He drinks coffee.

At the haberdashers he buys conservative ties, quiet sox. He likes tweed and worsted suits, single or double breasted.

Away from school, say on a Saturday, Mr. Draper likes to tinker and work around the house, and read. As for July and August, he is summer school principal at Cooley high. Late August finds him at his cottage away up at Torch Lake in northern Michigan.

We could go on into this patient man's private life and inform you that he gets up mornings by alarm clock, that he breakfasts on orange juice, bacon and eggs, and coffee, and that . . . but there, you're getting too noseey altogether. Run along now. You'll get to know him better in good time.

And besides, there is all the rest of the book to look at. So turn the page.

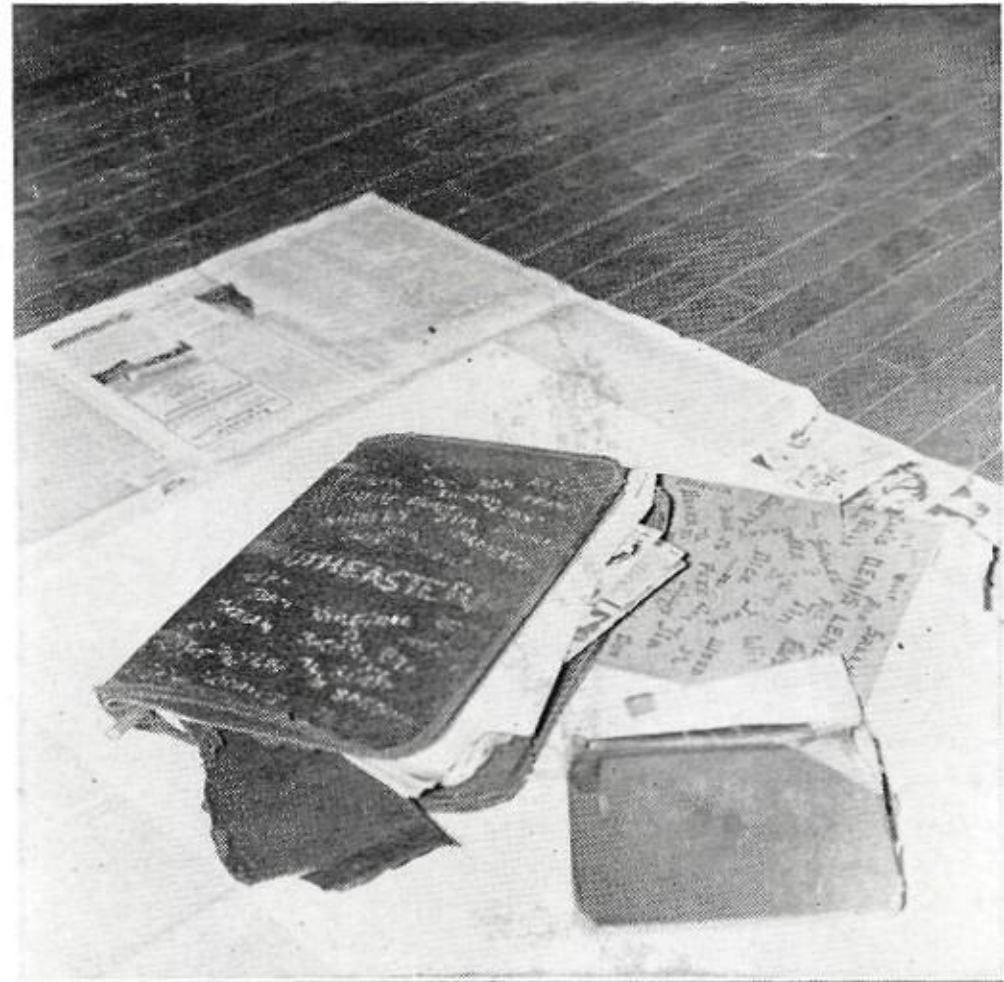

Mr. Draper

Beverly Bland	Everything	Eating lunch and vacants.	Getting up for first hour.
Pete Van Huss	Gas and tires for my car.	Mr. Moffat pounding on the desk with his hammer.	Miss Dotten's second hour Comp. 4 class.
Ann Laurence	Elastics.	Skipping school with the gang.	Being stomped on in the hall by big brutes.
Chris Charouhis	New cars.	After four semesters — Miss Parks.	Half hour in book store line— then — "S o r r y, bookstore closed."
Ruth Palmer	Men.	Those handsome R.O.T.C. officers.	Nothing, I just loved the place.
John Karcis	Not a thing.	Occasional long nights of homework.	My friends and school activities.
Alicemarie Lynch	Good food.	The good times and fine friends.	Homework.
Marshall Stuart	Good Hamburgers.	The football and basketball games.	Mr. Moffat's tenth hours.
Eileen McCarthy	Hershey bars.	Carrying so many books at one time.	Misplacing my pen.
Don Holstein	Gas.	Southeastern.	Teachers.
Jean Meyers	Shoes and bathing caps.	All the kids.	Lunch cards.
John Cammett	Peace-time living.	Basketball games followed by truculent chases.	dePodesta.
Doris dePodesta	Buses, streetcars, autos, bicycles, and other methods of rapid motion.	Southeastern.	The fifty-yard hall dashers.
Mike Birach	Gum (To tease the teachers with).	Short lunch line and long lunch period.	Teachers.
Jack Carlson	Nylons.	Loitering in the front hall's.	M. G. Sullivan.
Joyce Thomas	Good tennis balls.	Fun in the front hall before record.	The school spirit.
Shirley Brightwell	Men and nylons.	Those long lunch hours.	First through ninth with four vacants.
Don Rowley	Gas.	Mr. Moffat and all his "shysters."	Burkes.
Jeanne Dever	Steaks.	Running into my friends in the halls.	Not being able to talk as much as I wanted to during vacants.

Postwar Positions

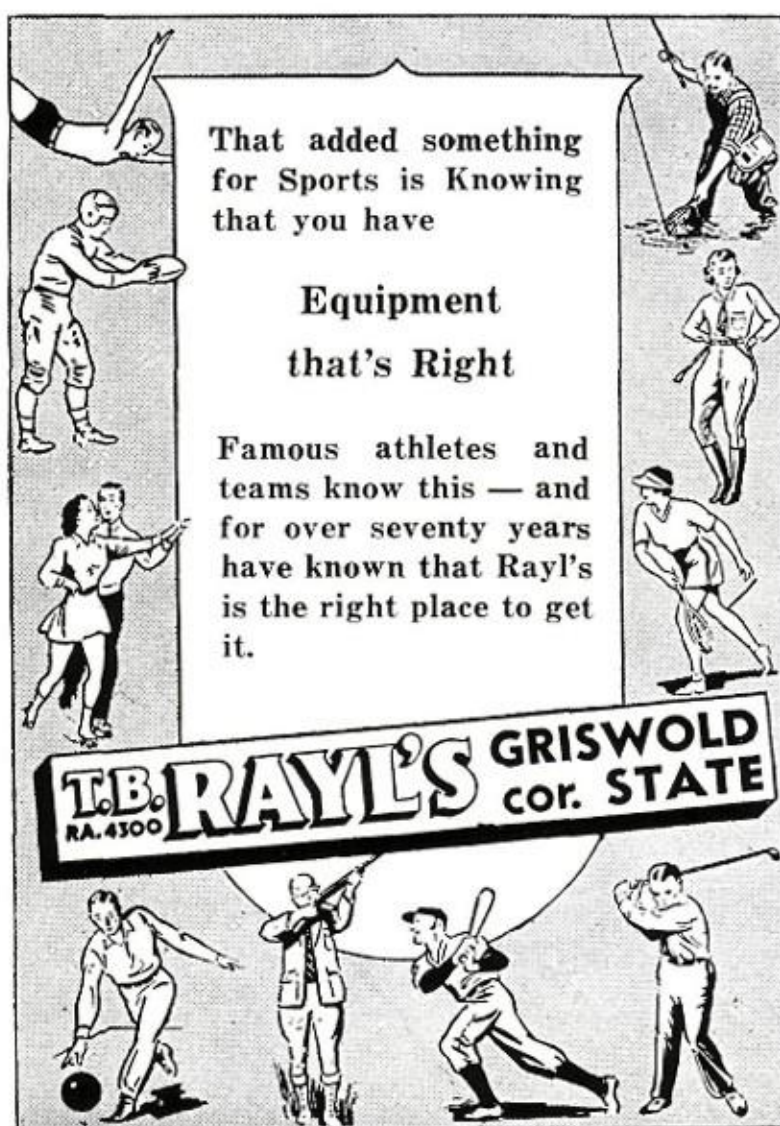

Many competent stenographers, typists, accountants, and office machine operators are needed by the government, war industries and business.

Thorough specialized training will prepare you for one of these opportunities, and will increase your chances for postwar employment and promotion.

You can get ready for a desirable permanent position by taking one of the Institute courses in the Day or Evening School.

There may be no lights — no camera — but there's plenty of action behind that Senior Dram stage set. And why not with Mrs. H. and Brother R. in a perpetual huddle. Never a dull moment—the suspense of tryouts when you act every role from the murderer to the colored butler—the feel of grease make-up and burnt cork — the afternoons in the auditorium until dark—the back stage romancing (just rehearsing) the thrill of your first audience in the high school Senior Play — that last curtain call amid wild applause — d'ya wonder the dramatics department is swamped?

TELEPHONE COMPANY

Michigan Bell offers a variety of jobs to appeal to almost every graduating high school girl. Operators to send calls over the humming long distance lines . . . business office representatives to handle transactions with customers . . . clerks and typists . . . workers in modern telephone cafeterias . . . girls with mechanical leanings to serve as helpers in the equipment rooms.

Telephone work is pleasant. Working quarters are clean and quiet. Associates are the type you would want to know. Wages are good, with regular increases and vacations with pay. Splendid opportunities for advancement.

Dining facilities in many buildings for everything from a soft drink to a dinner. And we may be able to place you in an office near your home.

The friendly girls in the employment office in the telephone building, 1365 Cass Avenue at State Street, one block north of Michigan Avenue, will gladly tell you all about these jobs.

The office is open every day except Sunday.

(CENSOR'S STAMP)

Hi, Jackson!

So you want to know whether we accomplished anything during my senior term, eh? Well, I'll have you know that we've done everything from buying a bomber to gazing at our new female cheerleaders.

Yep, Uncle Sam has a brand new B-25, thanks to the efforts of the Student Bond Publicity Committee, organized this term. They even got Rubinioff and his Violin to put on a great show in our newly decorated auditorium. Speaking of the auditorium reminds me that the seniors liked it so much that we voted to have our graduation exercises held at good old SE instead of that school they call Derby.

Not only is the auditorium fixed up, but the whole school looks fine. That includes our new assistant principal, Mr. Draper. He really scores high with me.

Talking about scores makes me think of football, and football brings to mind our field, and according to people who know, it will soon be lengthened to include the area halfway between Lemay and Montclair.

Well, Jackson, I suppose that's all I have to say about our great term, besides the fact that there was a little national election in November. But nobody paid much attention to that; they were too busy shining campaign buttons and musing they beivies received during intellectual conversation about the candidates.

I expect to hear from you soon.

Johnny
